Asbury Class Led by Rita Sharpe and Helen Austin
Main building, 2nd Floor, Memorial Room.
The Christianity Today Study Series delves into today's vital cultural issues to get to the heart of what these topics mean to readers. "Creation Care" addresses the problem of how we as Christians can appropriately deal with the difficult topics of stewardship, the environment, global warming, and more.

Couples Class Led by Bob Jacobs, Larry Johnson, and Ray Frank
Meeting in the Main Building, Second Floor, Church Parlor
The Wesley curriculum is the choice of Sunday school classes which value the holiness doctrinal distinctive, and the mission to evangelize and disciple generations for Christ. Over 100 years of curriculum development is combined with contemporary methods and materials to effectively disciple all ages. Wesley curriculum challenges students to be immersed in the love of God, and it encourages them to complete heart holiness, particularly through scripture memorization and practical life application.

Confirmation 2017

Confirmation in the United Methodist tradition is a rite through which young Christians affirm the faith of the church, renew the vows of baptism, and commit to lives of discipleship as professing members of the United Methodist Church.

Young people who have entered 7th grade, or beyond will be studying through a program called, "Credo". Credo brings worship, Sunday school, Bible study, service, and church ministries into an interesting and memorable study for the confirmands.
